

Outdoor Classroom is the Theme of the 2003 Holiday Book Program

This year, the Glover PTO has generously offered to focus the 2003 Holiday Book Program on building a collection of nature-related books for the Glover Outdoor Classroom. This year's wish list of books has been carefully crafted to include materials that will enrich our students' outdoor learning experiences (such as field guides, nature journaling books, kids' gardening books, and stories about nature and gardening).

The Holiday Book Program offers parents the option of purchasing a book in honor of a favorite teacher for the Glover Library. Here's how it works:

1. You choose to honor any special teacher by "purchasing" a book (actually, Glover Librarian, Lori Henry does the shopping) for the teacher. See the form below.
2. The book will be inscribed with your child's name and the name of the designated teacher, and will be wrapped so that your child can present it to the teacher.
3. Afterward, the book will become part of the Glover Library's collection for all of our students to enjoy.

Please return the form and your check in an envelope with a check payable to Glover School PTO to your child's teacher by Monday, December 8, 2003. Please label the envelope Holiday Book Program, PTO Mailbox.

If you have questions, please call Mary Jane Walsh (696-8523) or Ann Savino (698-6019).
